Human Values (2021-2022)

Our Computer Science department has arranged a webinar on Human Values for the final year U.G students on behalf of world humanitarian day. The resource person was Asso.Prof. M.Mohanadhas, Department of Computer Science. He explained how to improve the quality of our students called human values. Once to improve the values he/she will success in our day to day life. Our resource person touched with comfortable life and uncomfortable life. Normally uncomfortable life makes successful because during uncomfortable life we take more efforts and hard work. But in comfortable life may fail in our life, because our people may not take efforts or hard work. He played more videos during his presentation.

It was a wonderful session. This made a good awareness to our students. The final year U.G students were benefited. Around 25 students and 3 staff members were participated.

Feedback:

- The programme was highly informative.
- The programme was very useful.

Date: 7-9-2021
Time: 11.00 a.m. – 12.00 a.m
Venue: M-2-1
No. of Beneficiaries: 24 Students.

Introduction

An introductory talk by the Dr. D. Anto Pravin Singh, Head and Department of Business Administration was given to the students about the Humanitarian Day. Next Dr. R. Sukithar gave a detailed wonderful message about the Humanitarian Day

Content

Humanitarian day was designated in memory of the 19th August 2003 Bomb attack on the Canal Hotel in Baghdad, Iraq, killing 22 people including the chief humanitarian in Iraq, Sergio Vieira de Mello in 2009, the United Nations General Assembly formalized the day as world humanitarian day (WHD)

Each year World Humanitarian Day focuses on a theme, bringing together partners from across the humanitarian system to advocate for the survival well-being and dignity of people affected by crises, and for the safety and security of aid workers.

World Humanitarian Day Quotes by famous personalities

“Life’s most persistent and urgent question is, ‘What are you doing for others?’” - Martin Luther King Jr.

“You must not lose faith in humanity. Humanity is an ocean; if a few drops of the ocean are dirty, the ocean does not become dirty.” - Mahatma Gandhi

“Overcoming poverty is not a task of charity; it is an act of justice. Like Slavery and Apartheid, poverty is not natural. It is human-made and can be overcome and eradicated by the actions of human beings. Sometimes it falls on a generation to be great. You can be that great generation. Let your greatness blossom.” - Nelson Mandela

“If you can't feed a hundred people, feed just one.” - Mother Teresa

To say that on a daily basis you can make a difference, well, you can. One act of kindness a day can do it.” - Betty Williams

“The destiny of world civilization depends upon providing a decent standard of living for all mankind.” – Norman Borlaug, father of the Green Revolution

Feedback

- The students were attracted and felt they were really blessed by God in the world.
- The students promised that they will show humanity towards others and parents in their life.

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY

Annai Velankanni College
Tholayavattam - 629 157
(Accredited with B++ by NAAC)
Report on Yoga (2021-2022)

A few minutes of Yoga during the day can be a great way to get rid of stress that accumulates daily, in both, body and the mind. Yoga postures, Pranayama, and meditation are effective techniques to release stress.

Meditation is relaxation and rejuvenates the body and mind. With this aim in mind, a Webinar on "Yoga for Respiratory Health and Immunity" was organised on the 21st June, 2021, for the staff and students through a virtual platform. The trained Isha yoga instructor took yoga session with great dedication. The teachers and students were participated with full interest, enthusiasm and eagerness.

The session began with exercises for relieving stress; reducing joint pain and enhancing the flexibility of the back were also done for the benefit of the teachers and students. The Principal motivated the staff and conveyed the importance of making yoga an integral part of our daily life by extending the practice of yoga beyond the mat. The session concluded with an interactive session between the instructor and the participants in which the queries of the teachers were addressed satisfactorily. The session was very refreshing, reviving and relaxing.
